Danielle M. Stone, Psy.D.

NeuroBehavioral Associates, Neuropsychologist dstone@nbatests.com

Education

08/19 – 08/24 The Chicago School of Professional Psychology, Washington, D.C.
Psy.D. in Clinical Psychology
American Psychological Association (APA) Accredited

08/19 – 10/21 The Chicago School of Professional Psychology, Washington, D.C.
Master of Arts in Clinical Psychology
American Psychological Association (APA) Accredited

08/17 – 10/19 The Chicago School of Professional Psychology, Washington, D.C.
Master of Arts in Forensic Psychology: Professional Counselor Licensure Track

08/14 – 05/17 Washington & Jefferson College, Washington, PA
Bachelors of Arts in Psychology, Minor in Forensic Science

Professional Experience

10/26 – Present NeuroBehavioral Associates, Columbia, Maryland
Neuropsychologist

- Completing neuropsychological evaluations in a private practice setting treating culturally and ethnically diverse individuals across the lifespan, from preschool to older adults, who present with neurodevelopmental disorders, including attention and executive functioning difficulties, learning disorders, autism spectrum disorder, and intellectual disability. Other presenting concerns include neurocognitive and neurological disorders, as well as comorbid psychiatric and behavioral concerns.
- Generate neuropsychological reports, provide feedback, and discuss treatment recommendations with patients and family members.
- Consult and collaborate with school teams and treatment providers to help coordinate interventions.

01/21 – 12/23 Pivot Point Counseling, Baltimore, MD
Mental Health Clinician
Supervised by Katelyn Trentalange, MSW, LCSW-C and Barbara Ruark, LCPC, CAC-AD.

- Engaged in individual psychotherapy with diverse adolescents and adults, ages 18 to 54, who present with various mental health concerns, such as anxiety, depression, eating disorders, phobias, suicidality, trauma, and grief utilizing a cognitive behavioral and person-centered approach.

Supervised Clinical Training

01/26 – 08/26 The Center for Assessment and Treatment, Chevy Chase, Maryland
Neuropsychology Postdoctoral Fellowship
Supervised by Jennifer Linton Reesman, Ph.D., ABPP; David Black, PhD; Veronica Chang, Psy.D.; Cate Kraper, PhD; and Rochelle Drill, PhD, BCBA-D, NCSP.

- Postdoctoral neuropsychological fellowship within a multidisciplinary private practice settings treating culturally and ethnically diverse individuals across the lifespan, from preschool to adults, who present with attention and executive functioning difficulties, learning disorders, autism spectrum disorder, neurodevelopmental diagnoses, medical diagnoses, and comorbid psychiatric diagnoses.
- Conducted all aspects of a neuropsychological evaluation, including clinical interview, test selection, test administration, test scoring, interpretation, report writing, feedback, discussing treatment recommendations with patients, family members, and treating clinicians, and supporting families as they navigate the school system in obtaining special education services and accommodations.
- Co-facilitated Unstuck and On Target group therapy with first, second, and third graders.
- Participated in weekly individual supervision, neuropsychology didactic seminars presented by The Kennedy Krieger Institute, neuropsychology team meetings, and case conferences.

09/24 – 01/26 Chesapeake Postdoctoral Neuropsychology Training Consortium
Bethesda, Maryland
Lifespan Neuropsychology Fellowship, APPCN Member Program
Supervised by Jennifer Linton Reesman, Ph.D., ABPP; Veronica Chang, Psy.D.; and Vincent Culotta, Ph.D., ABN

- Postdoctoral neuropsychological fellowship within a multidisciplinary private practice settings treating culturally and ethnically diverse individuals across the lifespan, from preschool to older adults, who present with attention and executive functioning difficulties, learning disorders, autism spectrum disorder, neurodevelopmental diagnoses, medical diagnoses, and comorbid psychiatric diagnoses.
- Conducted all aspects of a neuropsychological evaluation, including clinical interview, test selection, test administration, test scoring, interpretation, report writing, feedback, and discussing treatment recommendations with patients and family members.
- Participated in weekly individual supervision, neuropsychology didactic seminars presented by The Kennedy Krieger Institute, neuropsychology team meetings, continuing education presentations, and case conferences.

07/23 – 08/24 Washington D.C., VA Medical Center, Washington, D.C.
Doctoral Internship, APA Accredited
Supervised by Ernest Aucone, Ph.D., ABPP-CN, Ashlyn Mitchell, Psy.D., Samia Ortiz-Hernandez, Ph.D., Michelle Siegel, Psy.D., D.B.S.M., and Leonard Tate, Ph.D.

- Conducted all aspects of a neuropsychological evaluation, to include chart review, clinical interviewing, test selection, test administration, test scoring, interpretation, report writing, and providing feedback to Veterans and their family members, within Neuropsychology and Polytrauma.
- Conducted brief neuropsychological evaluations in specialty clinics, to include the Multiple Sclerosis Clinic and the Movement Disorders Clinic, as well as collaborated with interdisciplinary teams.
- Outpatient neuropsychological evaluations were conducted with culturally, ethnically, and racially diverse Veterans to address various referral questions, such as dementia, amyotrophic lateral sclerosis, multiple sclerosis, Parkinson's disease, stroke, and traumatic brain injury.
- Facilitated group cognitive rehabilitation within the Integrative Health and Wellness Clinic.
- Conducted individual cognitive rehabilitation with diverse Veterans to include low vision.
- Facilitated individual and group Cognitive Behavioral Therapy for Insomnia with Veterans who had various sleep difficulties.
- Conducted individual therapy, utilizing EBP's, with Veterans in the substance abuse rehabilitation program.

08/22 – 06/23 Washington D.C. VA Medical Center, Neuropsychology Clinic, Washington, D.C.
Doctoral Externship
Supervised by Jennifer Strang, Ph.D., ABPP

- Conducted all aspects of a neuropsychological evaluation, to include chart review, clinical interviewing, test selection, test administration, test scoring, interpretation, report writing, and providing feedback to Veterans and their family members.
- Facilitated group cognitive rehabilitation with culturally, ethnically, and racially diverse adult males and females within the psychosocial rehabilitation and recovery center.

08/21 – 06/22 Eating Recovery Center, Hunt Valley, Maryland
Doctoral Externship
Supervised by Irene Rovira, Ph.D. and Megan Pejsa-Reitz, Ph.D.

- Provided therapy in Residential, Partial Hospitalization Program (PHP), and Intensive Outpatient Program (IOP).

- Conducted weekly individual therapy sessions utilizing Enhanced Cognitive Behavioral Therapy, Family Based Therapy, Motivational Interviewing, as well as conducted family therapy sessions with patients and their family or friends.
- Facilitated weekly group therapy sessions with children, adolescents, and adults ages 7 to 65 (e.g., Exposure and Experiments group, Family and Friends, Body Image, etc.).
- Groups were conducted in person and via telehealth with culturally, ethnically, and racially diverse individuals of all genders in the following levels of care: PHP, IOP, and Virtual IOP.
- Worked in a multidisciplinary team setting and participated in weekly meetings.
- Provided clinical meal support to children, adolescents, and adults who presented with anorexia nervosa, bulimia nervosa, binge eating disorder, avoidant/restrictive food intake disorder, and unspecified feeding or eating disorder in person and via telehealth.

09/20 – 06/21 Neuropsychology Associates of Fairfax (NAF), Fairfax, Virginia
Doctoral Externship
Supervised by Timothy Fratto, Ph.D., Cynthia Sullivan, PhD, and Catherine Bergmann, PsyD

- Administered and scored neuropsychological assessment batteries with culturally diverse adults and older adults.
- Wrote comprehensive neuropsychological reports.
- Evaluations were conducted to address various referral questions, such as dementia, MS, stroke, epilepsy, PD, attention deficit hyperactivity disorder, traumatic brain injury, and learning disabilities.

09/18 – 06/19 Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency, Re-entry and Sanctions Center,
Washington, D.C.
Master's Externship
Supervised by Michael Uh, Ph.D.

- Performed case management duties and connected the clients who were in an inpatient setting to appropriate placements utilizing a client-centered approach and motivational interviewing.
- Conducted initial psychological testing with culturally diverse adult males and females.
- Provided individual psychotherapy to racially, ethnically, and culturally diverse adult males with co-occurring disorders.
- Interviewed clients and presented their case to the unit interdisciplinary team.
- Wrote discharge plans and determined appropriate treatment recommendations for clients.

Professional Licensure

12/23 – 01/26 Maryland, Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor (LC11642)

Specialized Trainings

05/2025 University of Maryland Autism Research Consortium ADOS-2 Clinical Training

Research Experience

06/21 – 08/23 Doctoral Dissertation

Title: Nutrition and Quality of Life in Individuals with Multiple Sclerosis

Chairperson: Alison Fedio, Ph.D., Psy.D.

Summary: An empirical study utilizing a survey to collect and analyze data to determine whether nutritional factors or specific diets influence an individual's self-reported quality of life regarding their diagnosis with MS.

Professional Presentations

Stone, D. & Culotta, V. (2026). Neuropsychological profile associated with TBR1-related disorder. [Conference Presentation]. Americal Academy of Clinical Neuropsychology, Baltimore, M.D.

Clyburn, S., Medovich, D., & Leonard, O. (2019). Treating trauma in short-term correctional settings: Security or treatment? [Conference Presentation]. Forensic Mental Health Awareness Conference, Washington, D.C.

Medovich, D. (2018). Group for incarcerated women who are survivors of intimate partner violence. [Conference Presentation]. Forensic Mental Health Awareness Conference, Washington, D.C.

Medovich, D. (2018). Social support for women who are living with substance use and intimate partner violence. [Conference Presentation]. Forensic Mental Health Awareness Conference, Washington, D.C.

Professional Affiliations

06/22 – Present American Academy of Clinical Neuropsychology (AACN), Student Member

09/22 – 09/25 American Psychological Association of Graduate Students (APAGS), Graduate Student Member

09/25 – Present American Psychological Association Member